

Why K.G. College

To bring in a healthy relationship between students & teachers

To ensure that students are made competitive enough for job.

To make student understand that by studying they can appreciate life with fresh perspective

To enforce discipline in students with respect to all areas of college life.

To make students understand that college is the place for an all round development of their personality